

STRENGTH BY ASSOCIATION

The Furniture Association of New Zealand (FANZ) is a national organisation that was established in 1943 by, from and for New Zealand's furniture industry. Its central focus is to protect and further the interests of its members, and the industry as a whole. FANZ is managed by a democratically elected National Executive that represents various regions and sectors of the industry. FANZ lobby is strengthened by affiliate membership of Business NZ, along with over 50 other leading national industry groups, representing 76,000 employers.

A VOICE, A CHAMPION, A HELPING HAND

FANZ is the only national organisation devoted solely to the furniture industry. It gives its members a unified national voice to air concern, lobby for positive change and promote growth in their industry. It also provides members with an active networking and information-sharing resource.
